

The San Francisco Film Society partners with the business community to build mutually beneficial relationships, making our shared community a dynamic place to live and work. By supporting the San Francisco Film Society, our Corporate Partners support the oldest Film Festival in the Americas and are presented with the opportunity to get involved with its excellent programs throughout the year. The San Francisco Film Society provides our Corporate Partners with corporate entertainment benefits during the San Francisco International Film Festival as well as employee benefits and employee involvement opportunities through volunteerism at its programs throughout the year.

Corporate Partners Program

Executive Membership

The San Francisco Film Society builds a strong connection to Corporate Partner executives through special Executive Memberships, including the following benefits:

- Subscriptions to Picture Talk, the Film Society's quarterly newsletter
- Complimentary copies of the San Francisco International Film Festival's Program Guide (the Festival's comprehensive guide to films, directors, awards and tributes)
- Complimentary copies of the San Francisco International Film Festival's Miniguide (the Festival's quick guide to films, times, venues and tickets)

Senior Executive Members

Corporate Partners are asked to designate Senior Executive Members to receive the following additional benefits:

- Private cocktail reception with a visiting filmmaker during the Festival
- CineVisa, the all-access pass that guarantees a seat at every theater during the Festival. The CineVisa is fully transferable to any employee. CineVisa holders must arrive 20 minutes before showtime to be guaranteed a seat.
- Invitations to Opening Night Gala (includes film and party tickets)
- Invitations to Closing Night Gala (includes film and party tickets)

Levels

Corporate Members at all levels receive the following standard benefits:

Corporate Partner Employee Benefits

- Email bulletins with notifications of screenings and special events throughout the year. These bulletins can be broadcast to Corporate Partner's employees.
- Invitation for Corporate Partner's employees to join the Programming Team for an inside look at the Festival Program
- Employee discounts on tickets to year-round events (not Festival)
- Up to 25 complimentary copies of Picture Talk, the Film Society's quarterly newsletter

Corporate Partner's Employee Involvement

- Opportunity for employee involvement through our volunteer program during the San Francisco International Film Festival. All volunteers are eligible for the Film Society's Cinevoucher program. (Cinevouchers are redeemable for actual film tickets.)

Corporate Recognition

- Recognition as Corporate Partner in the San Francisco International Film Festival Program Guide
- Recognition as Corporate Partner on Thank You Boards during the Festival and at year-round Film Society Events
- Onscreen acknowledgment in the theaters at Film Society Events all year round
